Additional Documentation for NRIS #97000657 – Boundary Expansion

Prepared April 5, 2007

As the designated authority under the National Historic Preservation Act, as amended, I hereby certify that this additional documentation meets the documentation standards for registering properties in the National Register of Historic Places and meets the procedural and professional requirements set forth in 36 CFR Part 60. In my opinion, the property meets does not meet the National Register criteria. (See continuation sheet for additional comments.)

At the time of its listing on July 3, 1997, it was believed that the Gold Miner Hotel, 601 Klondyke Ave. in Eldora, stood within Lot 1, Block 24, Eldora, Boulder County, Colorado. Recent research determined that the buildings on the property extend into the rights of way of Klondyke Ave., 6th Street, and Huron Ave. The revised boundary description below reflects the actual location of the buildings and the land included in the National Register listing. The new boundary includes a new public property owner who was provided an opportunity to comment on the expanded boundary. No new resources are being added to the listing.

Verbal Boundary Description

Lot 1, Block 24, Eldora, Boulder County, Colorado, plus all of those portions of the rights of way located around and adjacent to Lot 1, Block 24, Eldora, described as follows:

The northern 5 feet of Klondyke Ave.; the western 22 feet of 6th Street.; and the southern 12 feet of Huron Ave.
